ACEER 2026 Invitation

The 8th International Conference on Advances in Civil and Ecological Engineering Research (ACEER 2026) will take place on July 7-10, 2026, at the City University of Macau, Macao, China.

Since 2019, ACEER has served as a premier platform for fostering academic exchanges and collaborations among researchers, scientists, and practitioners in civil and ecological engineering. This year, we invite you to join us for an engaging program that will showcase cutting-edge research, innovative solutions, and multi-disciplinary approaches to address global challenges related to civil and ecological engineering.

On behalf of the organizing committee, we cordially invite you to participate in ACEER 2026 and contribute to the advancement of civil and ecological engineering.

Welcome to join ACEER 2026!

Explore Macao

The Macao Special Administrative Region (MSAR) is a part of China's territory. It is located on the Southeast coast of China to the western bank of the Pearl River Delta. Bordering on Guangdong Province, it is 60 km from Hong Kong and 145 km from the city of Guangzhou. After more than 400 years of coexistence of European civilization, the fusion of eastern and western cultures had made Macao a city with unique features and left a large number of historical and cultural relics.
